Customs Tariff.

We have always maintained that the Canadian Government would consent to any reasonable modification of our Preliminary Notice. tariff, so as to adapt it to the peculiar industrial condition of this country. When the terms of Confederation were announced last summer, we objected to the provision respecting the tariff, on the ground that instead of foreing upon the Legislature of the colony a choice At Salesroom, Wharf Street. between two extremes-the British Columbian or the Canadian tariff-there Thursday, June 8th. ought to have been a third choice, a mean between the two extremes provided. Holding fixed opinions on this subject, we have never ceased to urge the necessity of making a tariff that would meet the views of the farmer as well as the merchant. Quite recently, on May 11th, we stated that "the tariff" that the member for Victoria district "labored to secure during the exceptional BROOMS, BUCKETS period between now and the opening of the railway is neither the Canadian nor the British Columbian, but one better suited to promote our local industry. whether agricultural or commercial, and one that will be welcomed alike by the farmer and the merchant." Our local cotemporary, the Colonist, on May 29th, in reference to our views on the tariff, delivered itself in reply in the following choice language: "There is reason to fear that an attempt will be made during the approaching election to use this question for mere party, we might perhaps say personal, political purposes. Already has the unscrupulous demagogue (Mr. DeCosmos) announced that "I will give the people a better tariff than either the one of the other." We will not deny the sincerity of the announcement, for it is difficult to decide the extent to which egotism warps the judgment of some men; but there need be no hesitation in challenging the ability of any man or any set of men in this colony to do anything of the sort" Again, at the conclusion of the same article, our orthodox cotemporary said "There need not be the slightest hesitation in affirming that those who promise the people of British Columbia "a better tariff than either the one or the other are either knaves or fools, and those who would keep the question open from year to year are no better than either." Thus spoke our oracle on May 29th. Now, our readers will recollect that during the last session of the Legislative Council a resolution was moved by Dr. Helmcken and seconded by Mr. De-Cosmos, asking the Canadian Government to reduce the duty on spirits to 80 cents per gallon, on flour to 75 cents per barrel, and on wheat to 10 cents per bushel. The Governor General of Canada replied, stating that whatever action was taken in the matter would have to be taken after union. In reply to his message, the Council represented again to the council represented the council represented again to the council represented the council represen the Canadian Government the benefit of the measure to British Columbia and the Dominion. A few days ago the news arrived that the 50 cents per gallon on whiskey would be taken off; and also that the modification of our tariff would be treated favorably by the Dominion Government. Sir F. Hincks, the Finance Minister, thus speaks of changing our tariff after union: "In the opinion of the undersigned, it is not expedient that the Government of the Dominion should come to any conclusion as to the proposed modification of the tariff of British Columbia, until after the establishment of Legislature concur in the recommend tions of the Legislative Council, the Dominion Parliament would, in the opinion of the undersigned, be inclined to consider them favorably" Now, is not this utterance of the Finance Minister a thorough and convincing refutation of the charge of the Colonist that any man or a set of men who promised that a better tariff than either the Canadian or British Columbian, could be had, were "fools or knaves." We leave our cotemporary to enjoy its chagrin at the statesmanlike enjoy its chagrin at the statesmanlike course of the Canadian Cabinet. It is manifest that it must feel very small, now that it is manifest that the Ministry at | 200 Cases No. 1 Leaf Lard. Ottawa will recommend to Parliament 100 Cases IXL Lard, any reasonable modifications of our tariff so as to make it more suitable to the agricultural and commercial interests of this colony. Though wholly unable to produce justify its gross misrepresentations of our utterances on the Paris rebellion, still it keeps at its unboly work. So far as we are concerned, we are content to let it ply its vocation as the slanderer,-for we are satisfied that it can neither injure the STANDARD nor its editor. But when it denies that the editor of the Colonist obtained votes on the ground of being an Orangeman, thus setting for the first time the wicked example of introducing the bitterest of religious hatreds, quite unnecessarily, without reason or provocation, into this colony, we reply that we know better; and what is more, we can, when occasion may require it, produce a witness who saw the Black Flag-"no quarter"-flying. Those who have only read of the scenes of strife and bloodshed in old countries produced by secret politico-religious associations, may well stand aghast at the diabolical purpose of importing them into this peaceful country to serve some paltry political ends; but those who have witnessed the evils produced by them stand horrified at the audacity of one who would enlist sympathies or obtain votes by such means. No wonder we have had such libellous letters, manufactured in the Colonist office, as those of "C." and M. R.," for those who wo'lld not scruple to introduce a politico-religious firebrand into British Columbia politics, would stop at sothing to secure their ends.
